

Fellows of the Community Justice Centre (FCJC)

Each year the Community Justice Centre elects an individual who has made a substantial and notable contribution to Restorative Justice as a Fellow of the Community Justice Centre, entitled to the post-nominals FCJC.

The contributions may have been made within our community, our region, our province, our nation, or elsewhere in our world. Regardless of where they are made, they inspire our volunteers and staff to continue their commitment to building a restorative culture to make a better world.

The following individuals have been honoured by the CJC in this manner.
